TRY IT FREE FOR 60 DAYS

Keeping your team productive while working remotely can be challenging. Xerox® DocuShare® Flex can help.

Businesses all over the world have suddenly shifted to remote work environments. As we all come to terms with recent events, many of us have already started to adapt and rebuild within these changing work practices.

Remote working comes with many challenges. The fact that your employees are working from their homes doesn't change the fact that they need to keep communicating and collaborating. Your team still needs to receive and share business-critical information securely and keep business processes as efficient as they were.

Our secure cloud-based content management solution can help keep your small business or enterprise department connected, no matter where you're working these days. Xerox® DocuShare® Flex is designed to help you digitize, automate and manage your content and business processes securely from any location, using any device*.

To help businesses adjust in these troubling times, DocuShare® Flex is being offered free for 60 days, with a 5 or 25 concurrent user package, allowing you to rebuild your business without any upfront financial commitments. After 60 days, you can choose to continue using DocuShare® as your core business solution by purchasing the required license or simply delete your account.

With Xerox® DocuShare® Flex you'll be able to:

- Upload and catalog content in seconds with powerful information capture features

- Categorize, store, organize and manage content throughout its lifecycle

- Collaborate on documents to help teams work more efficiently

- Add annotations such as comments and highlights or redact sensitive information

- Automate key processes such as approval or review requests

- Protect sensitive data with access restrictions, auditable tracking, reporting and retention

- Find content fast with powerful search capabilities

The 60-day trial offer includes:

5 or 25 concurrent users

200GB of secure cloud storage

Offer valid through July 31, 2020
